

Hey Parents....

Emergencies can happen at anytime. In an emergency you and your family could be without access to stores, electricity, running water and other critical supplies for hours or even days. Local, provincial and federal officials prepare for the unexpected, and so can you.

Prepare An Emergency Survival Kit

In the event of an emergency, everyone should be prepared to take care of themselves and their families for up to three days. The checklist below recommends items you should have in your emergency survival kit. Every member of the household should know where the kit is kept.

Emergency Survival Checklist*

*Three-day supply per person

- Flashlight and batteries
- Radio and batteries or crank radio
- Spare batteries (for radio or flashlight)
- First-aid kit
- Candles and matches/lighter
- Extra car keys and cash
- Important papers (identification)
- Food and bottled water
- Clothing and footwear
- Blankets or sleeping bags
- Toilet paper and other personal items
- Medication
- Backpack/duffel bag (to hold all of the emergency survival items)
- Whistle (to attract attention, if needed)
- Playing cards, games

Pet Emergency Survival Kits

Pets are part of our families. Below are the items you should include in a pet emergency kit:

- Food, water, bowls, paper towel and can opener
- Blanket and small toy
- Sturdy leash and harness
- Cat litter/pan (if required) and plastic bags
- Carrier for transporting your pet
- Medications and medical records (including vaccination information)
- Up-to-date ID tag with your phone number and name/phone number of your veterinarian
- Copy of license (if required)
- Muzzle (if required)

Know What To Do If You Are Asked To Evacuate

- Leave immediately
- Take your emergency survival kit with you
- Take your pet and follow the instructions of local officials
- If you are instructed to do so, shut off your water, gas and electricity
- Wear shoes and clothing appropriate for the conditions
- Lock your home
- Use the evacuation routes specified by your local officials
- If you are in a locked or dangerous area, take authorities into consideration
